SUPREME COURT ASKED TO PASS ON QUESTION

Action Is Brought to Determine Point Raised Upon Informations.

OGDEN, April 24 .- The latest echo of the cases of robbery which were filed several weeks ago against B. E. Bramlett, B. G. McGuire and John K. Garrett, proprietors of the Apex saloon, is an action which has been started in the supreme court of Utah by District | district court this morning. Attorney N. J. Harris against the district court of Weber county and Judge J. A. Howell of that court, in which the district attorney seeks to obtain an order from the higher tribunal to reinthe cases on the criminal docket

It will be recalled that the defendnots were given a preliminary hearing before Judge Murphy of the police court who ordered them held for trial in the district court. The district attended to the court was afterward filed the court. in the district court. The district atmation charging the defendants with the robbery of an old man named Goff at the Apex saloon December 11, 1908. #### TECHNICALITY OF LAW GIVES BARNES FREEDOM

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, April 24.-Walter Barnes, against whom a charge of refusing to provide for a minor child has been on trial in the district court for several days, was this morning given his free-dom on order of Judge Howell, and the charges dismissed.

Barnes owes his freedom to a technieality of the law. His attorneys, Halverson & Maginnis, argued that as he is not a resident of Utah and was not at the time the alleged nonsupport of his child occurred, the statute makinge such an offense a felony would not apply, as the courts of this state bave no jurisdiction over a nonresident.

The arguments were heard by the court yesterday afternoon and this morning he ordered the prisoner released on these grounds.

IS TO HAVE A BANK DEMURRER ARGUED IN STOLEN MONEY CASE

Argument Heard in Unique Action and Matter Taken Under Advisement.

The case of the United States against Charles G. Price came before Judge court, Saturday morning, when a de-murrer to the complaint was argued. The case has a few unique features. On November 11, Charles G. Price of Ogden went to the substation at Five of the Deseret News dated November 9, and addressed to Charles Price. When Price opened the paper he found $2410 in bills on the inside, which he immediately took to the bank and deposited. Shortly before this incident a bank of Portland, Or., was robbed of a large sum of money. A few days after Charles G. Price of Ogden received the money another man giving his name as Charles G. Price called at the general postoffice at Ogden and asked for mail. Officers had been placed upon his trail, but he escaped. Later he was arrested and taken back to Portland.
